We are delighted to invite you to visit the new museum of communication at Sammy Ofer School of Communications.

The museum is dedicated to the important historical contributions of communications to human culture and human interaction across borders and boundaries. The museum, set in the innovative environment that is the hallmark of the school of communications, presents the development of communication initiatives since the beginning of the twentieth century, placing particular emphasis on documenting media activities before and during the establishment of the state of Israel.

In addition, visitors to the museum are introduced to unique and rare means of transmission from all over the world, on display in Israel for the first time.

Visiting hours during the intermediate days of Passover 2015 are:
- Sunday, April 5th, 10 am – 5 pm
- Monday, April 6th, 10 am – 5 pm
- Tuesday, April 7th, 10 am – 5 pm
- Wednesday, April 8th, 10 am – 5 pm
- Thursday, April 9th, 10 am – 12 pm

The museum is open to visitors and is free of charge, sponsored by Bank Hapoalim.
