"An overview of my research during the last 30 years, 2012-1982"

Plan of the talk:

In my talk I will cover several topics from my experimental program, discuss some of the main results and how those studies influenced my thinking on economic behavior and economic modeling: The topics will included experiments in private-value and common-value auction environments, some behavioral experiments and the effect of group deliberations on anomalies in economics.