The Arison Leadership Development Program at Arison School of Business Cordially Invites you to participate in the series:

LEADERSHIP FROM THE INSIDE OUT

This series of intimate executive workshops, facilitated by Dr. Sivanie Shiran, cover a range of topics of interest to developing managers. In these small-group sessions MBA and GMBA students have an exceptional opportunity to explore their professional dilemmas and concerns and to gain input and insight while also developing their peer network.

Join us for the upcoming workshop:

Immunity to Change: Unlocking New Potential at Work

This workshop, first developed at Harvard University, provides students will an opportunity to identify their key development goals, while exploring the deeper psychological obstacles which have – until now - prevented them from realizing them.

Sunday, March 20th 2016, 13:30-15:30

Rubin Seminar Room (A320), Arison-Lauder Building, IDC Herzliya

* This workshop will be conducted in English
* Advanced Registered is Required. As space is limited, please register now by clicking here