The Arison Leadership Development Program at Arison School of Business
Cordially Invites you to participate in the series:

LEADERSHIP FROM THE INSIDE OUT

These small group workshops focus on a wide range of topics of interest to developing managers. In these small-group coaching sessions students have an opportunity to discuss their individual professional dilemmas and concerns and gain the input and insight offered by their peers and faculty.

The upcoming workshop focuses on

LEAN IN: Women, Power and Authority in Business

This small group workshop will focus on issues related to women's experience of working in the corporate sector. In particular we will be focusing on how women's leadership and authority - inner and outer - are taken up in this context, using your personal experiences as our case studies.

Sunday, April 10th 2016, 13:30-15:30
Rubin Seminar Room (A320), Arison-Lauder Building, IDC Herzliya

* This workshop will be conducted in English
* Advanced Registered is Required. A space is limited, please register now by clicking here