The Lauder School of Government, Diplomacy and Strategy cordially invites you to a lecture by:

Prof. Stephen D. Krasner
Senior Associate Dean for the Social Sciences, Stanford University

on:

Theories of Development and External State Building

Sunday, December 22, 2013, 14:00 - 15:30
Room CB07, Arazi-Ofer Building, IDC Herzliya Campus
Kanfei Nesharim St. Herzliya

Prof. Stephen D. Krasner is the Graham H. Stuart Professor of International Studies, the Senior Associate Dean for the Social Sciences, School of Humanities & Sciences, and the deputy director of FSI, all at Stanford University. He is also a former director of the Center on Democracy, Development and the Rule of Law (CDDRL). Prof. Krasner is an FSI senior fellow, and a fellow of the Hoover Institution.

From February 2005 to April 2007 he served as the Director of Policy Planning at the US State Department. While at the State Department, Krasner was a driving force behind foreign assistance reform designed to more effectively target American foreign aid. He was also involved in activities related to the promotion of good governance and democratic institutions around the world.

The lecture will be conducted in English
