Sammy Ofer School of Communications and
The Daniel Pearl International Journalism Institute Cordially invites you to a lecture by

Ms. Paula Slier
Russia Today's Middle East Bureau Chief and award-winning foreign correspondent

Wednesday, November 19th 2014, at 10:15
Room PEB20, Psychology-Economics Building

Paula will share her experiences covering two of the major news stories of 2014 - Ukraine and Isis.

Paula has just returned from Iraq, Syria and Turkey where she was only a few kilometers from ISIS. She spent time embedded with Iraqi Kurdish and Syrian female soldiers. She also spent several months this year reporting from the front-line in eastern Ukraine as the Ukrainian military clashed with pro-Russian fighters.

The lecture will be conducted in English